Case #

I, Julia Eickmeier arrived at Wal-Mart in Peru IL around 11:05 am. I was meeting Kevin, the father of our child to do a visitation pickup exchange there. I pulled into the parking lot from the North end and parked adjacent to Kevin's 03 Jeep parked approx. in Row 12.

Then, we both got out of our vehicles. Kevin stood while I got Maddy out of my car, gave her a hug then let her go to dad. He was putting her in the car seat of his car, then he got back into the drivers seat. I was giving Madeline hugs goodbye + took a few pictures of her + I with my phone. [redacted] Kevin & I began discussing the visitation schedule. I asked if he'd meet me back at Wal-Mart for drop off. Madeline comes back to me. Kevin said no + stated he was keeping her longer than court ordered visitation time. Despite Days he cant or doesnt have visitation, the visitation order stays the same. Last week was a 4 day according to the Judge approved visitation order alternating 1 week 4 days. the next 2 days. Last week we discussed plans from Thur - Sun as it was a 4 day - thus making this week a 2 day. There is evidence to prove sexual abuse is occuring during the visits + thats why I'm more comfortable w/ a 2 day than a 4 day.

VOLUNTARY WITNESS STATEMENT

Case #

Thats the reason why I complied on a 2 day Thurs - Fri because if the child must be subjected to a sexually abusive situation, as a good mother, I feel 2 days in that is safer than 4 days. Letting her experience that alleged sexual abuse for 2 days is bad + long enough. When the father expressed he was not returning the child according to the visitation schedule, I decided I'd rather keep Maddy with me instead of potentially contributing to her experiencing sexual abuse for 4 days in a row or however long he wasn't planning to return her. I feel + believe Madeline is 100% safer with me than with her father due to alleged abuse that I can prove. I tried getting the child back from his car seat. Our conversation took place with me leaning in the back right passenger door where Madelines car seat was. Kevin began recording me and I asked him not to. I then told him he was not allowed to record me. Kevin Pushed my hands off her seat. I explained if he would agree to bring her back at the court ordered time I'd let her go with him but he refused so I insisted on keeping her safe with me

As I was leaning in Madelines door discussing things with her father, I was partially (upper body) in the vehicle but feet standing outside on the ground. Kevin angrily began to press on the gas of the vehicle with the door open + me leaning halfway in over Maddy. his action to cause the vehicle to move left me with an in the moment choice to let that cause me to fall, get hurt or run over or Jump in the vehicle for my safety. Then I called 911 + stayed on the phone w/ them while Kevin videoteped, ~~+ attempted~~ Madeline is 3 years old + too young to have a moral concisunse (knowledge of good v.s. bad) Many children dont know + arent afraid of dangerous or abusive people if they are all they know or what they learned from experience. its up to adults to teach them. If an adult sexually abuses a child they will think thats normal instead of be afraid + grow used to it w/ time.

Its not the childs ability to know whats right from wrong nor in her capability. She may went an abusive person because they have not been taught to know different.
